A Note from the Pastor...

I remember being a child and my favorite church week of the year was our annual missions conference. I loved seeing all the cool things that missionaries brought with them. It was even better when they dug out the church's screen and slide projector to show slides of the exotic places where the gospel was being shared. I have always been fascinated by missionaries and their dedication to the gospel.

As Southern Baptists, we don't have the opportunity to meet all our missionaries. In fact, PRBC supports thousands of missionaries across the globe. It would take us years to hear each missionary. However, we will have an eternity to meet these missionaries and see the fruit of their labor when we arrive in Heaven. Until then, we can pray for them and support them through our giving through the Cooperative Program and to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

As we welcome a missionary family who is from Alabama and who serves in Asia this Sunday, we have the privilege of seeing a portion of the impact of our financial faithfulness. I hope that you plan on being here this Sunday as we welcome this family. I am excited to hear the message that he will bring from God's Word and equally excited to hear of God's work on their field.

This Sunday, we also begin our week of prayer for foreign missions. As we pray for the work across the globe, we should also pray that God will reveal our portion of the work to us. We all have a part in this work. I hope that you will prayerfully consider giving to this year's Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. It is beautiful to think that millions of Southern Baptists around the world can partner together through our individual small gifts to make a huge impact on the world.

I look forward to seeing you this Sunday. Invite someone to join you for this special service.
