A Note from the Pastor...

What an odd Sunday we had this week! As I watched Nate's progress throughout the week, I was certain that he would be too late for our morning service. I really thought we would be able to have morning worship, get home, and hunker down for the winds and rain. When I woke up Sunday morning and checked the radar and new reports, I realized that I was wrong. Nate would be here just in time for our service. I learned two things: (1) I would be a bad weatherman, (2) I am glad I am not a weatherman.

We are blessed to live in an age when mass communication is easier than ever. From my perch in front of the weather, I could check the radar on my phone, text the staff for input, and send word of our service cancellation to hundreds of people in an instant. Events like Nate remind all of us to make sure that we have built communication streams between ourselves and others.

This Sunday's events posed an added challenge because our phone tree will not allow us to send calls before 9 AM or after 9 PM. The call we made at 7 AM couldn't be send until 9 AM. I am thankful for Facebook, Instagram, and our text messaging service.

If you did not get a text from the church this weekend, please sign up to receive these texts. You can call the office and we can add you to the roster manually or you can text yourself in by texting: "@yesprbc" without the quotes to 81010. If you don't text, please find someone in your Sunday School class or Small Group who does receive texts and ask them to keep you informed of emergency schedule changes.

I missed you yesterday, and I look forward to seeing you this Sunday. Our children will be performing this Sunday. This is a good opportunity to connect with families and to encourage these children as they service God with their talents.
