A Note from the Pastor...

This is my favorite time of the year. We have before us a blank slate, 360 days filled with possibility and promise. I love the thought that this could be the year that God does something absolutely amazing here at Pleasant Ridge.

To begin the year, I wanted us to take a look at one simple question: Why do we exist as a church? The question is simple, but the answer can be very complex. Last year we spent a considerable amount of time meeting together in prayerful searching so we could answer this question correctly.

We exist as a church to glorify God. 1 Peter 4:11 and 1 Corinthians 10:31 both command us to glorify God through our actions as individuals. If each of us are glorifying God through our individual actions, our corporate actions as a congregation will also glorify God.

Some organizations have long, drawn-out purpose statements, but ours is simple.

What is the purpose of Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church? To glorify God.

Next week we will explore how we accomplish this purpose. I look forward to seeing you in church this Sunday. I hope you will bring someone with you. Have a blessed week.

Dr. Josh Cook
