A Note from the Pastor...

Several times in the New Testament, the church is pictured as a body made up of many members. We are challenged to accept the leadership of the head (Christ) and do what He designed us to do. Every week hundreds of people work together here at PRBC to make sure that we are accomplishing everything that God has called us to accomplish. I am very grateful for all of you who serve. This week I would like to publically recognize one group of people who faithfully and tirelessly work to make our body function smoothly.

April 27th is set aside as Administrative Professional's Day. PRBC has an amazing administrative staff. When someone is sick or in the hospital or when tragedy strikes, our administrative staff keep us praying and informed. In most cases, the ministerial staff serves as the face of our church, but behind the scenes our administrative staff are faithfully working to keep things running smoothly and effectively. Much of their work is unseen and may seem to go unnoticed, but this week we have an opportunity to recognize all of their hard work. Helen, Cheryl, Christiana, and Sara are great assets to our church. Thank you all for all that you do to keep things running smoothly.

Please take a moment this week to let them know how much you appreciate them. What a blessing it is to know that God has divinely assembled all of us together as one body. I am thankful for all of you, and I look forward to seeing you this Sunday. Great things are happening at PRBC!

Dr. Josh Cook
