A Note from the Pastor...

What a great Sunday we had this week. I want to offer a special, "Thank you" to all of our Golden Heirs for their hard work and for their great sense of humor. The musical on Sunday night was absolutely amazing. Thank you all again. I am already looking forward to the next one.

Many times we have heard people wrongly say that God will never give us more than we can bear. It is true that God will not allow us to be tempted beyond what we can bear (1 Cor. 10.13). Many times in the Bible we see God allowing people to be in situations that are much bigger than they could handle (think, David and Goliath) so He can teach them to more completely depend on Him. We serve a God whose strength is perfect and who we can trust in every situation that we face.

In this week's sermon, as I spoke about time management, I mentioned that God will not give us more than we can handle. I wanted to take a moment to clarify that statement this week. Henry and Richard Blackaby said, "God does not give people more than they can handle, but people regularly assume responsibility for things they should not be doing." As we seek to glorify God through our time management, we can be certain that God will not assign to us more than we can do in our time. We must also be careful that we do not add things to our schedule that God did not approve.

God does not burn people out. He is a perfect steward of his people. Burnout and exhaustion are symptoms that we have compromised God's plan for our time. When we find ourselves growing weary, let's take that as an opportunity to examine our schedules and do our best to conform our schedule to our Father's agenda.

I look forward to seeing you here this week for our biker service. Invite someone to come with you. God is doing great things here at PRBC, let's not keep it to ourselves.

They could really use some help from us. They need teachers for all age groups. They have a team coming to lead but they need workers to assist them. If you would be willing to help them, call the church office.

A huge "Thank You" if you worked, gave or prayed for our Sweet Tea Tuesdays ministry. Over 2,000 bottles of Milos tea, 4 flats of water and 1500 flyers about the ministries of PRBC were given out to the citizens of Hueytown during the month of June.
